

The Acme Gazette Science Correspondent

Location: Remote / anywhere a printing press still runs

The Acme Gazette seeks a Science Correspondent for its print desk to translate dense research into clear, durable prose for a general readership.

Requirements:

- 3+ years of science or general reporting
- Plain-language translation of technical material
- Fact-checking and source development
- Comfort with embargoed papers and deadlines
- Basic data literacy (spreadsheets, simple analysis)

Responsibilities: file a weekly science feature; cultivate expert sources; fact-check section copy.
